Between the Fires.

ABOUT OUR VERSES.

The verses recently reprinted in this paper from Holland's Magazine, entitled "Contentment", have appeared in a number of our exchanges, and the writer would not be human not to appreciate the compliment.

The San Antonio Express and the Memphis (Tennessee) Commercial Appeal, two great daily papers, reproduced them on their editorial pages, the latter, particularly, giving it a double column space in one of its big Sunday editions. This is one of the most widely circulated dailies in the South.

The Austin Forum and Sifter, the leading Union Labor paper of Texas, as did, also, The Issue, Ex-Governor Vardaman's paper of Jackson, Mississippi, find space in their columns for the verses. The latter paper is the leading political and literary journal of Mississippi, and has the largest circulation of any paper in that state.

Among the local papers, The Beeville Picayune reproduced them in double column on its front page, and the Holly Springs (Mississippi) Reporter, edited by a former teacher of the writer, copies them and says of their author:

"A MARSHALL COUNTY BOY."

"We are publishing this week a poem entitled 'Contentment' which was composed by Mr. Fletcher Davis, Editor of The Hondo Anvil Herald, published at Hondo, Texas. Mr. Davis is one of Marshall County's boys who has achieved success and prominence in the Lone Star State. He was born and reared between Taska and Mt. Pleasant and was a student in the Mt. Pleasant High School when this editor was its principal. We rejoice with the numerous friends and relatives back in the old home county in Mr. Davis' continued prosperity."

The following is from The Carrizo Springs Javelin:

Fletcher Davis, editor of the Hondo Anvil Herald, reproduces a poem in the last issue of his paper that is making the balance of Southwest Texas editors somewhat envious. It was reprinted from the February number of Holland's Magazine. The following is a copy:

Contentment

FLETCHER DAVIS

Happiness comes not in gaining
The heights beyond all others' reach;
Nor is greatness born attaining,—
But doing what's allotted each.

Not all can scale the mountain's crest,
Not all can blaze the untried way;
Because you cannot lead the rest
Scorn not the humbler to play.

Learn this lesson; enough to know
Love and contentment here are won
Only by patient steps and slow,
And noble is that's nobly done.

Despise no task however mean;
Shirk not what is your labor's due;
Give your best effort and I ween,
Sweetest content will come to you.

As To The Scalp Bounty Law.

Representative Hornby writes us there is a wrong impression regarding certain features of the Wild Animal Bounty Bill as finally passed. The Bill as agreed to by the Free Conference Committee and which escaped the executive veto will not go into effect until September 1st, 1912. It provides $100,000.00 for the extermination of wild animals: for lobos, panthers, etc. $5.00; for coyotes, $1.00; for wild cats $1.00.

Counties are to pay one-fourth of these amounts. Trappers must secure the consent of the owners of the land on which they desire to trap. The Commissioners can require as much evidence as they want to satisfy themselves that the scalps have been obtained according to the provisions of the bill. They may refuse to pay the bounty if they are not satisfied and there is no appeal.

On the whole he believes the people are most fortunate in securing the passage of this law in any shape and for the bill to escape being vetoed. In the face of the large deficiency and an unavoidable increase in the State Tax rate, Governor Colquitt would have had more reason to veto the measure than did Governor Campbell at the last session.

Why He Was Astonished.

Lord Townsend, at the battle of Dettengen, was standing quite near a drummer boy whose brains were dashed out by a cannon ball. His lordship gazed on the horrible spectacle for some moments in silence. At last an old officer spoke up and said: "Why is your lordship surprised? Such things must happen in war." "I know it," was the reply; "but what astonishes me is that a boy with so much brains should be here at all."

Fred Biediger of Lower Medina stole a march on his many friends here. He left for San Antonio last Monday and was happily married to Miss Agnes Mangold, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mangold, sr., of this place.
We are informed that the happy young couple will make their future home in San Antonio. We join their many friends in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous married life.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Mangold moved

they will in future reside.

This section was blessed with a slow, soaking 1½-inch rain Saturday afternoon. Judging from different reports it was general. Farmers are wearing a regular 2x4 smile. The old Medina came down on a boom Sunday morning.

from a lengthy visit to kinfolks near Devine.

Albert Hoog entertained the members of the 500 Club Sunday evening.

As this valuable paper contained a shipped to Castroville Saturday evening and interred in the Catholic cemetery Sunday afternoon, Rev. Father Heck-mann officiating. March 20, 1911.

You Take No Risk

Our Reputation and Money are Back of This offer.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation.
We take all the risk. You are not obligated to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. Could anything be more fair for you? Is there any reason why you should hesitate to put our claims to a practical test?

The most scientific, commonsense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. They are very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. They do not cause diarrhea, nausea, flatulence, griping or any inconvenience whatever. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

We urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Two sizes, 10c and 25c.
Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Falkenberg

For is not friendliness the thing of all things that is most pleasant in this world? Sometimes it has seemed to me that the faculty of reaching out and touching one's neighbor where he really lives is the greatest of human achievements.—Grayson.

A Good Beginning.

Everything in later life depends upon how we begin it. You cannot be successful in life if you haven't good health. To insure good health in later life it is necessary to start right.
Many of life's serious ills are caused by constipation, indigestion and liver trouble. The best way to cure them in old or young is by the use of Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is absolutely guaranteed to do what we claim, and if you want to try it before buying,
send your address for a free sample bottle to Pepsin Syrup Co., 119 Caldwell Bldg. Monticello, Ill. It is sold by all druggists at 50c and $1 a bottle.

NOT SUCH A GREAT MARVEL

"Telephone Spectroscope" Easily Explained When One Understood the Situation.

Charles R. Crane of elevator renown, was once discussing with a Chicago reporter a new elevator invention.

"That invention," said Mr. Crane, smiling, "is very wonderful. But I'm afraid it's like the telephone spectro-scope."

"How so, sir?" the reporter inquired.
"Well," said Mr. Crane, "there were two friends, Blank and Dash.
Blank was rather glibbly. Dash called him up one day and said:

"Hello, old man! You're looking well. These telephone spectroscopes are fine things, aren't they?"

"Telephone spectroscopes? What are you giving us?" said Blank suspiciously.

"Why, it's the latest thing," said Dash. "A round, mirror-like disc in front of the 'phone. You see the person you're talking to just as I see you now."

"Just as you see me? Rubbish!
Do you mean to say you've got one on your 'phone?" sneered Blank.

"Sure, old man. And I see you plain in it."

"O, you do, eh? Well, what am I doing then?" said the glibbly Blank as he held up his hand.

"Why, you're holding up your right hand, of course."

"Humph," mystified, Blank knelt on the floor. "What," he said, "am I doing
now?"

"Ha, ha, ha! Saying your prayers," was the reply.

"Blank then held up in succession before the telephone his watch, a hat, a fan; and Dash, at the other end of the wire, named the articles promptly and correctly."

"So Blank, the glibbly Blank, was convinced; and before ringing off he told Dash to be sure and send the spectroscope agent around and he'd buy two from him, one for the office and one for the house."

Mr. Crane laughed, lighted a cigar and began to talk elevators again.

"But how—" stammered the reporter—"how was the trick worked?"

"The joker Dash," said Mr. Crane,
"had been talking from a friend's office across the street and through the window he had a full view of Blank all the time."

SURE.

Miss Screecher—Would you like to hear me sing "In Old Madrid?"
Mr. Bright (absently)—Yes, if you think you could secure long-distance telephone connections.

She Didn't Care.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, at a luncheon in New York, said with good-humored mockery of the suffragettes:
"If they keep on their outlook really will become as naively selfish as Mrs.
Dash's."

"Mr. Dash, as his young wife posed before the mirror in a décollete gown from the dearest shop in the Rue de la Paix—Mr. Dash, regarding the pretty little lady indulgently, said, with a sigh:

"You do look nice in that frock,
dear, but it cost me a heap of money."
"She flung her arms about his neck.
"You dear old boy," she cried,
"what do I care for money, when it's a question of pleasing you?"

Encouraging Him.

"Anyhow," said the fiery young orator, "when I have anything to say about the infamous trusts I don't mince my words!"

"No, you don't," spoke the old campaigner; "and when you have learned how to talk without mumbling them you'll do nicely for a beginner."

Help from the Predigal.

The prodigal son, repentant, or at any rate weary of the diet of husks forced upon him by a vigilant police system, had experienced a change of heart and joined the church. The good sisters were discussing his desirability.

"But," expostulated Mrs. Straight-lace, with a fine and virtuous display of righteousness, "he was a common gambler."

"Isn't it lovely!" exclaimed Mrs.
Uptodate. "What a help he can be in getting up our church bazaars!"

Palpably Impossible.

"I thought you said your son was highly educated."
"He is. He was the highest man in his class at college."
"Then how do you account for the fact that he has succeeded in writing the words of a popular song?"

Obituary Notice.

A very sad death occurred at the home of Rufus Mask, two miles west of Hondo, Sunday, March 19, 1911. His wife, Mattie James Mask, after a two week's illness, passed away at that time. Her remains were interred in the new cemetery Monday afternoon.

Two weeks ago she was taken with an attack of lagrippe, after which jaundice set in. Twenty-four hours before her death pneumonia developed, which ended her life with great suffering. She leaves her parents, husband and six young children to mourn her death. The oldest child being but nine years and the youngest, a baby only eight months of age.

Eleven years ago she was married to Mr. Mask and since that time her life was spent in this vicinity. She was born in Chester, Tyler county, Texas, May 25, 1882, being the daughter of William James, who, with his family, lives at the old home.

Fifteen years ago she was converted and united with the Church of Christ. Those who knew her best testify to her as a high type of Christian character. Her neighbors speak of her in the highest terms. Her last words were expressive of great faith in God. She spoke of dying as going home. She called her husband and each of the children to her bed-side and left with each a message of instruction and exhortation to live good lives and finally meet her in Heaven.

While it is sad to part with those who are dearest, it is a great consolation to us when our friends pass away in such faith.

"He that believeth on me though he were dead, yet shall he live."

The family has the sympathy of the entire community.

S. M. W.

Sabinal, Texas, March 20.—Thelma, aged 13 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brashier, died Sunday night. Interment took place Monday in the City Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Brashier have the sympathy of all of their Hondo friends in this great sorrow.

Bids Let for Lutheran Church.

The trustees of the Lutheran church received bids as follows on the erection of their new church edifice last Saturday.

M. H. Ryland, Uvalde, $4,152.00.
O. P. Kroeger & Co., San Antonio, $4,100.00.
Leo Mandry, San Antonio, $4,050.00.
Hy. Clemens, San Antonio, $3,590.00.
Hughes & Haynes, San Marcos, $3,445.00.

Hurt & Jones, Hondo, $2,770.00.
Messrs. Hurt & Jones being the lowest bidders, the contract was accordingly awarded to them.

The building is to be constructed of D'Hanis red brick, is to be 30x50 feet, shingle roofed and with metal ceiling overhead. The front is to be adorned with a 10x10-foot tower projecting six feet above the comb of the roof, the top to be finished in battlement coping or cornice. The doors and windows are to have Gothic arches, with colored lights in the windows. The building will have concrete foundation and the walls will be 15 feet high from the bottom of the floor sills.

The church will front on Bandera avenue and will be about a block north of the court house. It will be an ornament to that part of town.

Attention.

I hereby call a meeting to be held at the court house Monday, March 27 at 8 p. m., for the purpose of organizing an association, the object of which shall be to aid and encourage all such matters and things as shall be for the general material advancement of Hondo and Medina county, or either.

All tax payers in Hondo and vicinity are requested to be present.

H. E. HAASS,
County Judge.

Philathea Class Meeting.

The Philathea Class met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Rogers Tuesday afternoon.

The Class study, "Church Conferences," was led by Rev. M. L. Darby.

Miss Cora Birschwale rendered Padrewski's Minuet on the piano, and Mrs. John Monkhouse sang a solo, "Holy City," and this was followed by church hymns by the class.

On account of Mrs. E. G. Garwood moving away from the city, she tendered her resignation as press reporter, and the same was accepted and Mrs. John Monkhouse was elected as her successor.

Miss Bertha Newton was received as a new member.

Visitors present were: Mesdames de Montel, A. Armstrong, Robert Surber, T. A. White and M. A. Cooper.

After the regular work of the meeting was over, Mrs. Rogers, assisted by her daughter, Miss Emabel, and Verna Mae Hudspeth, served delicious refreshments of punch and cake.

Shoes to Last a Lifetime.

Say, Mr. Shoemaker, would you rather have your customers speak of your shoes as wearing well, as not running down at the heel, as turning water, and taking a shine; or wag their heads and say nothing?

We'd rather have ours, at long intervals, say: "We want some more paint, and we want Devco." We know it isn't in human nature to paint very often; we don't expect them to come very often; don't want 'em to. All we want is to paint what they have to paint, whenever they paint it; the longer the time, the surer they are to come back. There's business enough in the world; there are houses enough to paint; let 'em take their time.

If we were a shoemaker, we'd make shoes to last half a lifetime, and shoe the whole town.

HOLLOWAY BROS.

Road Overseer's Notice.

Yours for good roads, clean streets and alleys.

Married.

Mr. Walter Thiel of San Antonio and Miss Eugenia Grimsinger were happily married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Grimsinger, Tuesday morning, March 21, 1911. Rev. Father J. J. Myres performed the service.

The young people left in the evening for San Antonio where Mr. Thiel is employed by the San Antonio Machine & Supply Co., and where they will make their future home.

The Anvil Herald joins the many friends of the happy pair in congratulations and best wishes.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank the good people of Hondo for their kindness and sympathy to myself and my motherless children in our sorrow over the death of my beloved wife, and I especially thank those who have been of financial assistance to us in our need.

Respectfully,

THE HARDEST THING IN THE WORLD.

By W. J. BURTSCHER.

Said the merchant, as he weighed out his lard,
Getting a start in life isn't so hard!
So I up and started that self same day,
And I found it to be just about that way.

For it's not the starting
That is hard, you know,
But the going when once
You are on the go.

Said the banker, as he counted his stuff,
Saving your money is easy enough!
So I saved a small pile that very night,
And found the banker to be about right.

For it's not the saving
That is hard, my friend,
But it's keeping the money
That you want to spend.

Said the lawyer, as he mounted the stump,
Reaching the top isn't so much of a stunt!
So I tried and got there within two months,
And knew he had told the truth for once.

For it's not the reaching
That is hard, understand,
But the staying up there
When once you land.

Said the preacher, as he made his words ring,
Quitting your meanness is an easy thing!
So I quit it at once, and let me shout,
The fellow knew what he was talking about.

For it's not the quitting
That is hard, my son,
But the staying quit
When once you've begun.

Prefer Diet of Mosquitoes.

"The most interesting letters received at the aquarium are those written by persons who live in a mosquito infested neighborhood," said a guardian of the city's fish. "Those pestered humans have heard that newly hatched fish prefer a diet of mosquitoes, and they write urgent appeals for us to come and skim a few millions of young mosquitoes off the surface of a neighboring pond before the mosquitoes get big enough to require a diet of their own."—New York Sun.

Do you know that of all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself that you need to fear, but the serious disease that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and consumption are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you can? For sale by all dealers.

Ballard's Snow Liniment

It is a Powerful Preventive, as Well as a Speedy Cure

Rub it in on the parts affected whenever the conditions seem to indicate a spell of this painful ailment; it will warm the joints and ward off the trouble. If the disorder has already commenced, the treatment is the same, the rubbing helps the liniment to penetrate to the seat of pain. The relief is prompt and very satisfactory; the aching joints are relieved, the muscles relaxed so that the sufferer feels again the strength and suppleness of youth.

For flesh wounds of all kinds, it is a wonderful remedy. Try it for cuts, burns, bruises, sore chafed spots, barbed wire cuts, sprains, swellings, frost bites. It cures quickly and completely.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per Bottle.

Who Was There That You Knew?

IN the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are found again.

3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $30,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years—they are buried there still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down, until it was discovered from pillar to post for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan tried to secure the collection—Ex-President Garfield and General Benjamin F. Butler said it was worth $150,000—yet with the help of the Review of Reviews, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs. It is the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War for the camera cannot lie. It tells the story of the War you never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war; they penetrate to strange places and record strange things.
